

For immediate release
Sept., 24, 2015

MEDIA RELEASE

Ranch Ehrlo Society: changing lives and making impressions Outcomes for 2014 - 2015

Regina, SK (Sept. 24, 2015) – Have you ever wanted to know how Ranch Ehrlo helps to heal youth and families?

The 2014-2015 Outcomes Report showcases resident and client experiences at Ranch Ehrlo Society and their accomplishments for the period of June 1, 2014 to May 31, 2015.

As the latest Performance Outcomes Report demonstrates, Ranch Ehrlo's unwavering commitment to individuals, families, and communities has changed lives, made impressions, and improved the well-being of the people in its programs.

"It's an awesome place for youth to go and grow up properly," one youth responded in the feedback survey.

"The staff care about you, like you, and take the time to get to know you," said another.

Highlights from the 2014-2015 report indicate that Ranch Ehrlo continues to serve its clients efficiently and effectively:

- 91% of residents were satisfied or strongly satisfied with services at Ranch Ehrlo Society
- 89% of youth reached/attained part of all of their goals
- 86% of out-of-home placements were prevented in the Intensive Family Preservation Program
- 96% of clients in the Programs for Persons with Developmental Disabilities reported an improved a quality of life since coming into the program
- 85% of parents believe their child is being helped during his or her stay at the Ranch

Outcome highlights can be reviewed in the one-page reference guide attached, or investigated further in the complete report enclosed.

- 30 -

Ranch Ehrlo Society is a charitable organization dedicated to providing a range of quality assessment, treatment, services that improve the lives of children, youth, and their families.

For more information, contact:

David Rivers

Senior director, Ranch Ehrlo Society

P. 306- 781-1802

david.rivers@ranchehrlo.ca

www.ehrlo.com